Nicoletta Conner

Family and opportunity brought Nicoletta "Nikki" Conner, 60, of Vancleave to the United States from Greece at 19-years-old. Conner grew up in Greece, and she earned extra spending money as a child working in different family member's restaurants and bakeries. Between her father and mother, Conner had 20 aunts and uncles. Now she works as the hostess of the Country Gentleman in Gautier, which is owned by her cousin. "My family's been spread all over," Conner said. Conner learned to speak English by watching Western movies and listening to people around her. Her favorite part of working in the restaurant business is talking to the customers, she said. "The customers are a part of me," Conner said. "When I moved here I was a stranger, but working in the restaurant business I have made many friends through my customers." She has two sons and one grandson, and she visits her 97-year-old mother at the nursing home every day. She enjoys growing roses on the 10 acres she lives on in Vancleave.
